Literacy: Poetry Create a limerick or poem about your favourite hobby. Use what you have learnt from Mrs Stevenson to help you.	Numeracy: Percentages You have been given a set of flashcards. Get an adult to test you on converting between percentages, fractions and decimals.  Please bring these back to school when you hand in your homework.	Art: Chinese New Year Create a piece of art work which celebrates Chinese New Year and the year of the Fire Rooster. You can get the symbols for Happy New year in Chinese from Miss Pearston.
Science: Electricity Can you design an electrical circuit? Draw it using the correct symbols and be able to explain to the class how and what it powers.	P7's Eight-a-side Full time tasks are marked with a star. Extra time tasks are options. You must choose 2 or more.	Literacy: Reading Keep up to date with your weekly reading. Don't forget to update your First Minister's Reading Challenge Passport
Literacy: Listening and Talking Should junk food be banned from school?  Prepare three arguments for, which agree with, this statement and three arguments against this statement.  Be prepared to take part in a class debate where you will be chosen at random to support for or against.  	Real Life Events Like we do in school with Newsround, watch the news with your family and discuss your thoughts about the current affairs locally and around the world.  Parental Signature: _____	Life Skills: Shrove Tuesday Shrove Tuesday is on the 28th of February. Prepare your favourite pancakes to share with members of your family and write a brief review of what they thought of the pancakes to share with the class.  Did they like the taste? Did they like the presentation?  Optional: Take a photo.
