

School Closure Pack - Nursery

Week beginning 30.03.20

Monday

Kay's Literacy activity:

Teddy bears picnic: Invite your family members and/ or your toys to a teddy bears' picnic. Can you create an invitation? Draw pictures to make a list of things you might need. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=97wFth-uHVY>

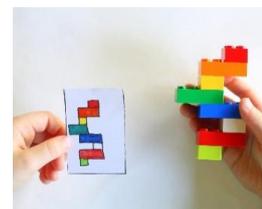

Can you sing along to these teddy bears picnic songs and rhymes?

Katie's Numeracy activity

Making patterns: Get your adult to make a pattern with lego, cars, coloured blocks or even cutlery.

Can you copy their pattern? Your adult could make this more challenging by encouraging you to continue their pattern or drawing a pattern for you to copy. Can you make your own pattern?

Emma's Health and Wellbeing activity:

Party dance Challenge: Can you do all Emma's dances from the Nursery You Tube channel in a row? Encourage your adults and siblings to join in too. Look out for daily updates on twitter of any new content added to the channel.

Tuesday

Susan's Literacy activity:

Phonics scavenger hunt: Get your grown up to put some items in a basket that start with the same sound e.g ball, banana, boat. You can work together labelling the sounds and the items in the basket. To make it more challenging add more sounds and go on a hunt around the house or the garden to find more items to add to your basket(s).

Fiona L's Numeracy activity:

Family game fun: Have a look around your house for some games you can play that include numbers, for example, snakes and ladders, bingo or any game that uses dice.

You could even try making your own game to personalise it.

Leah's Health and Wellbeing activity:

Build an obstacle course: You can do this inside or out in the garden, you can use objects to jump over, step on or climb over. You could also use masking tape inside or chalk outside to mark out your course.

Fiona M's Literacy activity:

Puppet Show: Choose a story to read with a grown up. Talk about the characters in the story and try to make some puppets. You could use anything; junk from the recycling box, socks, paper, spoons, sticks or anything else you can think of. Can you act out the story using your puppets?

Diane's Numeracy activity:

Ladybird spots: Draw a ladybird on a piece of paper, ask an adult to number some paper 0-5/10 (some children might want to have a go at copying the number or writing it themselves.) Collect some objects to represent the ladybird spots such as lego, buttons, playdough.

Pick out a numbered paper and try to count out the correct number of 'spots' onto your ladybird.

Brenda's Health and Wellbeing activity:

Action challenge: Ask an adult to write or draw different actions on paper, e.g hopping, jumping, star jumps, throwing or catching. Put them all into a hat or bag. Pick out a paper and see how many times you can do the action. Can you beat your other family members?

Jill's Literacy activity:

I spy with my little eye: How many ways can you play I spy? You could spy the pictures in a book, lay out some different toys or household items, If you need more challenge you could just play in any room in your house spying all objects in the room. You can play with colours, shapes or phonics.

Stacey's Numeracy activity:

Tuck Shop: Ask an adult to help you set up a tuck shop for your daily snacks. You will need a price list, loose change and some snack options. You can use loose change (or money drawings) to pay for your snacks helping you to recognise the numbers on and the shapes of different coins.

Carol's Health and Wellbeing activity:

Family Fun: Choose your favourite active game to play with your family. You could play twister, tig, what's the time Mr Wolf? Can you think of any others? You could even have a go at making your own twister board google has lots of ideas for this.
