

12 Fun Transition activities to do at home.

Bake Baking is a great way to support early numeracy skills. Bake some yummy cakes or biscuits and share your creations with us on Twitter 	PE practice Have your own gym day at home. Be as creative as you like you could even hold a family sports day. 	Design Can you design your own Transient art picture using items around the house or outside? 	Make A picture for your new P1 Teacher. Use whatever you like. Send us a photo of it so we can show it to them. 	Playground games Can you play What's the time Mr Wolf or hide and seek with your family members. 	Self-Care Can you practise 'getting ready' for school? Put on your own clothes and pack a school bag. Don't forget your snack!
Read There are lots of stories online that talk about going to school. Here's one to get you started. There will be lots of additional 'Going to School' stories on the twitter page read by our Early Years Team. https://youtu.be/Z_Seg9RBnuk 	Hunt Scavenger hunts are fun inside or out and support you with following instructions, Please see attached templates for some ideas. Ready, Steady, Go! Neighborhood Treasure Hunt 	Food Fun Have a family movie night with some homemade themed snacks related to our story of the week. How inventive can you be? 	Get Messy Sensory play helps you to feel calm and regulate your emotions. Enjoy some messy play at home. Click this link for some messy play ideas. https://www.artventurers.co.uk/blog/2016/10/16/10-simple-messy-play-activities/ 	Perform One of our favourite songs to perform at Cornbank is Call it Alba. Can you practice performing to it? Look out for Miss Hopkirk and Emma performing it in sign along on YouTube Channel. www.alanmurray.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2017/05/03-Call-it-Alba-Karaoke-mix.mp3 	Model Here is a link to a simple play dough recipe. Can you create one of the characters from our weekly story or a #midmouse using your play dough. https://youtu.be/S Mw41MyD0Sk

Remember to tweet pictures of any activities you do. Tag us @cornbankP1_2021 and add the #RISE

Cornbank Primary School

Remember to tweet pictures of any activities you do. Tag us @cornbankP1_2021 and add the #RISE